About this Guide
This leaflet is to provide you with useful information to help you plan your journey to the Hospitals campus, whether you are a patient, visitor, or member of staff.

Plan your journey
- www.travelinescotland.com
- 0871 200 2223

Traffic Scotland will help you make alternative plans.
- www.trafficscotland.org

Cycling is a great way to travel to the hospitals. There are shared access routes to the Hospitals campus and cycle hire facilities at Govan Cross, Paisley Road Toll and Partick Interchange. Designated visitor cycle parking is located at Arrivals Square.

Visit www.cyclestreets.net to get the route that suits you.

Walking
The hospitals can be reached on foot from Cardonald train station and Govan Subway station which is 1.3 miles from the Hospital campus. The Hospitals are also accessible by dedicated tunnels for pedestrian and cyclist access to the Clyde Tunnel. Please use the online journey planner to plan your route www.walkit.com.

Public Transport
Please refer to overleaf map for bus routes and services to the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals. Public transport provides direct access to the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals and allows interchange with the subway, other bus services and the train at Govan, Partick or in the City Centre.

Arrival Square is located in the centre of the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals site and can accessed from Govan Road and Hardgate Road.

Rail
The hospitals are located around 1.2 miles from Cardonald Train Station with regular buses serving the Hospitals. Cardonald Train Station is managed by Scotrail and is on the Inverclyde line linking Wemyss Bay, Gourock and Glasgow Central.

To plan your journey online please use www.travelinescotland.com journey planner or visit www.scotrail.co.uk.

Queen Elizabeth University Hospital Campus

- 1 Medicine for the Elderly (Langlands)
- 2 Neurology Building and Outpatients
- 3 Physically Disabled Rehabilitation
- 4 Queen Elizabeth Spinal Injuries Unit
- 5 Institute of Neurological Sciences
- 6 Acute Receiving Unit
- 7 Adult Emergency Department
- 8 Children’s Emergency Department
- 9 Royal Hospital for Children (RHC)
- 10 Maternity, Neonatal, Gynaecology and Outpatients
- 11 Queen Elizabeth University Hospital
- 12 GP Out-of-Hours Service
- 13 RHC Ward 4 Entrance
- 14 Westmarc
- 15 Clinical Genetics and Pathology
- 16 Podiatry
- 17 Mortuary
- 18 Teaching and Learning Centre – Stratified Medicine Scotland

Getting to the Queen Elizabeth University Hospital and Royal Hospital for Children

Accurate as at May 2016

Car Parking
There are drop off and pick up bays at Arrival Square for both cars and taxis. Patient and visitor car parking spaces are located within the two multi storey car parks, and car parks at Maternity and Langlands Drive (See P1 and P2 on the map). At times the car parks and surrounding roads can be busy and you should consider other travel options such as the bus if it is a suitable alternative. A number of disabled parking bays are available on campus. Car parking is free but there is a 4 hour maximum stay. Car Park attendants are available to provide advice if required.

Public Transport
Please refer to overleaf map for bus routes and services to the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals. Public transport provides direct access to the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals and allows interchange with the subway, other bus services and the train at Govan, Partick or in the City Centre.

Arrival Square is located in the centre of the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals site and can accessed from Govan Road and Hardgate Road.

Rail
The hospitals are located around 1.2 miles from Cardonald Train Station with regular buses serving the Hospitals. Cardonald Train Station is managed by Scotrail and is on the Inverclyde line linking Wemyss Bay, Gourock and Glasgow Central.

To plan your journey online please use www.travelinescotland.com journey planner or visit www.scotrail.co.uk.