I have now spoken to my clients and the proposed offer price is £42,000.

I look forward to hearing from you when you have spoken to your clients.

Regards

I understand my clients agents are working on the price side of things and should be able to come back with a proposal shortly.

On the costs undertaking I understand it was indicated at an earlier meeting that a costs undertaking would not be forthcoming from whilst issues such as the price had not yet been agreed.
