

Core brief

Tuesday, 29 January 2019

Introduction

This edition brings you the latest on e-Payslips, interim weather guidance and details of digital awards.

E-Payslips

e-Payslips are now live across NHSGGC, with the vast majority of staff now receiving their payslip electronically.

Payroll are receiving a number of enquiries following the implementation, in order to provide some additional support please find attached the most frequently asked questions.

A lot of staff are taking advantage of the “Contact Pay Office” function on the system, please be advised that due to the higher than normal volume of queries, it may take longer than normal to respond to these.

Finally, a reminder that the User Guide and Frequently Asked Questions can be accessed here.

Please note links are available on StaffNet only.

Interim Adverse Weather guidance

Interim National Arrangements for Adverse Weather have now been published. This is designed to ensure that in periods of adverse weather NHSScotland adopts an approach that is consistent ensuring that fair and equitable treatment is prioritised and that we remain able to effectively deliver essential services.

These arrangements apply to all employees of NHSGGC including Bank staff. The guidance can be found here.

NHSGGC staff hope to shine at Digital awards ceremony

NHSGGC staff have been shortlisted in no less than six categories in an awards ceremony dedicated to how technology is used to improve health in Scotland.

The second Holyrood Digital Health and Care Awards will be held in the Waldorf Astoria in Edinburgh on Wednesday, 20 February and will celebrate excellence and innovation in the growing digital health and care sector in Scotland. Click here to read more.