Latest NHSGGC news update

New technology is providing fast diagnosis and cutting missed appointments

We are introducing technology and artificial intelligence as part of an eHealth revolution on detecting and diagnosing disease.

We are working with a range of partners to be at the forefront of developing algorithms which can mimic the knowledge of pathologists which will allow computers to scan digital images for anomalies in biopsies and tissue samples. Click here to read more.

Small Change Matters

Have you completed our Small Change Matters survey yet? The closing date is fast approaching – 12 July so it's time to get your entries in! It only takes five minutes to complete.

All completed questionnaires will be entered in a prize draw for a chance to win £50.

The poster features the NHS logo and 'Greater Glasgow and Clyde' text at the top right. On the left, there is a 'Celebrating Success' award logo. The central text reads 'Nominate NOW' with a star in the 'O'. Below this, it says 'The Chairman's Awards celebrates innovation and the outstanding difference made by our staff who go that extra mile for their patients'. At the bottom, it provides the nomination website 'www.nhsggc.org.uk/chairmansawards' and the closing date 'Closing date for nominations is 31 July'. The background is decorated with several star-shaped photos of NHS staff members.
