Top Tips – Attention and Listening

- Say the child's name before speaking to them
- Get down to the child's level so you are face to face
- Reduce distractions and background noise
- Keep your language simple
- Make sure they are sitting close to you so that they can hear what you are saying
- Check that the child has listened to what you have said