

Core brief

Introduction

This issue informs staff about an issue with Jobtrain and highlights Gartnavel Royal's Mental Welfare Commission report.

Jobtrain recruitment system

Please be advised that all NHSGGC Hiring Managers who have access to the Jobtrain recruitment system that you may have received several emails generated from nhsscotland@jobtrain.co.uk with the subject header [ExternaltoGGC>Welcome Email - Immediate action required - NHS Scotland

These emails have been triggered from the system in error and you do not need to action the request in the email asking you to set up a password etc.

Jobtrain's technical support team are currently working to find out what has triggered this. This will not affect your access to the system should you have current vacancies in progress.

Apologies for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Gartnavel Royal mental health ward receives glowing inspection report

An inspection of Gartnavel Royal Hospital's Henderson ward by the Mental Welfare Commission has reported a number of positive findings. Click here to read more.

Are your contact details up-to-date? Click here to check