

Standard 1: Tissue Viability
Patient harm from pressure ulcers is reduced and prevented
1.1	Element: Safe and effective patient care	Process Evidence (CCAAT available as an appendix)	Evidence Compliant	Comments	Mapped to
1.1.1	All staff must know of the process for recording pressure damage (reporting hospital-acquired, grades 2-4, suspected deep tissue injury and ungradeable pressure damage on Trakcare to relevant service) Where appropriate; the red day review will be completed in partnership with either Tissue Viability or Podiatry – this is recorded on the CAIR dashboard.	Review: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Number of hospital acquired pressure ulcers &amp; days between hospital acquired pressure ulcers: NHS GGC CAIR dashboard (Strategic and RAGG views available)</li> </ul>
1.1.2	Staff can access appropriate pressure redistributing equipment and products to aid prevention and treatment of pressure ulcers and possess the knowledge of how to use these products correctly.	Review: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Equipment information contained within RED folder training</li> <li>Wound treatment guides available in clinical areas</li> </ul>
1.2	Element: Leading, managing and developing the performance of the team	Process Evidence (CCAAT available as an appendix)	Evidence Compliant	Comments	Mapped to
1.2.1	All staff to have knowledge on Pressure ulcer Prevention and management in line with organisational policy	Review: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Register of all staff signing they have read the Policies</li> <li>Learnpro records</li> </ul>		TV link nurses have objectives available on Tissue Viability web pages Tissue Viability Service
1.2.2	All staff to have knowledge of all relevant documentation used in prevention and management of pressure ulcers.	Review: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Record of staff completing the RED folder training with TV link nurse – keep in CAS folder Learnpro records</li> <li>PDP reviews</li> </ul>		TV link nurses have one: one training by Tissue viability nurse	Mapped to NMC: The Code
1.2.3	All staff must complete the learnpro modules and completed education from area TV link nurse, including correct grading of pressure ulcers and Annual Competency	Review: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Learn-pro records</li> <li>RED Folder Training at Ward / Department level includes Annual Competency – SCN to keep and maintain register</li> </ul>			