

COVID-19 isolation advice for households

- Isolating with symptoms
- Isolating with no symptoms

Anyone with symptoms should keep at least 2 metres away from others in their house.

If symptoms worsen or last for more than 10 days, call 111.