

Spring Programme supported by NHSGGC ENDOWMENTS AND CULTURAL PARTNERS

YOUR HOSPITAL LIVE ARTS!

Your Live Arts Events have gone digital. As the artists and performers can't be with you in the flesh this winter, they have created a unique selection box of online screenings. Click on the red mouse to choose a special event and don't forget to share this flyer with patients, family and friends.

NHS STAFF GOT TALENT - BRASS. AYE?

A vibrant community brass band bringing singing, dancing and carnival flavours to the party. With Lucy Reynolds, (Consultant Paediatrician), Karra Fife (Skye House), and Simon Hollands (QUEH). If you are an NHS worker with a talent, email Glen Dickson at glenyourhospitallivearts@gmail.com, to get involved.

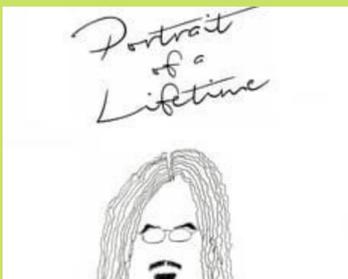

WALKING THEATRE COMPANY - MACBETH THE RED

'Macbeth the Red' explores the struggle between a nation's identity, and the corruption of the mind that reaches for power. The Walking Theatre Company has created extraordinary theatre all over the UK. A quirky retelling of a Shakespearean favourite.

SCOTTISH OPERA - COSÌ FAN TUTTE

Mozart's gleeful dissection of the highs and lows of young love, filmed at Theatre Royal in a concert performance with a twist. All performers observed current physical distancing guidelines throughout filming of this concert.

BILLY CONNOLLY - PORTRAIT OF A LIFETIME

Billy Connolly celebrates his 75th birthday and 50 years in the business by sitting for three Scottish artists - John Byrne, Jack Vettriano and Rachel Maclean. Made in conjunction with Glasgow's City Council's Mural trail and Art Pistol Projects.

WRITER'S BLOCK RADIO HOUR

Writer's Block Radio Hour started off as a lockdown project showcasing new drama, poetry, prose, spoken word, stand-up and music. It now has contributors and listeners from all over the world.

Contains mature content.

TRON THEATRE - EARWIG. A SONIC PODCAST

Designed to be listened to on headphones, incorporating text, sound design and music. Earwig seeks to challenge, inspire, and embrace its audience, inviting you deep into the inner world of its characters and placing the listener at the very centre of the drama.
