

SPRING 2 PROGRAMME SUPPORTED BY NHSGGC ENDOWMENTS AND CULTURAL PARTNERS

YOUR HOSPITAL LIVE ARTS!

Your Live Arts Events have gone digital. As the artists and performers can't be with you at the moment, they have created a unique selection box of online screenings. Click on the red mouse to choose a special event and don't forget to share this flyer with patients, family and friends.

NHS STAFF GOT TALENT - QEUH AND RHC NHS CHOIR

A choir bringing together staff at the Queen Elizabeth University Hospital and Royal Hospital for Children. If you are an NHS worker with a talent, email Glen Dickson at glenyourhospitallivearts@gmail.com, to get involved.

ALONE PART 2 - NATIONAL THEATRE OF SCOTLAND

Janey Godley teams up with Hollywood actor Jack Lowden and director Caitlin Skinner, for a heart-warming and uplifting follow-up to her original Scenes For Survival short, Alone. Alone 2 is produced by National Theatre of Scotland, in association with BBC Scotland.

ALASDAIR GRAY - MAGNIFICENT CITIZEN

Visual art was always central to Alasdair Gray's life, but he achieved recognition first and foremost as a writer. Liz Lochhead looks back at his work: his art, writing and his connection with the city of Glasgow.

CHRISTY O'DONNELL - SINGER/SONGWRITER

After years of honing his craft and busking on Glasgow's Buchanan Street, Christy O'Donnell released his beautiful EP 'Homegrown'. It's been described as a suite of songs that mixes the vocal tenderness of Jeff Buckley or Chris Martin, with the swirling musicality of Bon Iver.

WRITER'S BLOCK RADIO HOUR

Writer's Block Radio Hour started off as a lockdown project showcasing new drama, poetry, prose, spoken word, stand-up and music. It has contributors and listeners from all over the world and is now available on Spotify. Contains mature content.

EDWIN MORGAN - A CENTENARY CELEBRATION

Poet, Edwin Morgan was endlessly inventive, inquiring, energetic and deeply committed to his home city of Glasgow. Through music, readings and reflections, this film invites you on a creative journey into the mind of a Scottish genius. Hosted by the Edinburgh Book Festival.
